PROGRAM NOTE

I came across Psalm 121 and found great beauty in the admiration for natural creation linked with a promise of guidance and support from a higher power. I found such peace in the splendor of the natural world, and I wanted to capture that serenity with this piece. For centuries, psalms have inspired and encouraged and I wanted to set this psalm text to music that would allow the meaning of the words to speak freely. I carefully shaped the melodic lines to mimic that of a mountainous landscape and the tone colors to the bold hues of where the hills meet the sky.

"I Will Lift Mine Eyes" should be approached delicately allowing each chord to ring with a clear, pure tone. The natural cadence of the text should not be hindered by heaviness nor too rapid a tempo.

This piece is dedicated with love to Luverne and Barbara Runestad who have truly lived lives of great faithfulness, generosity, and love.

— Jake Runestad

PSALM 121

I will lift mine eyes unto the hills.
 From whence comes my help?
 My help comes from the Lord
 The maker of the heaven and earth.
 He will not let your foot be moved.
 He who keeps you will not slumber nor sleep.
 The Lord is thy keeper
 The Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
 The sun shall not harm you by day nor the moon
 by night.
 The Lord will keep you from all evil.
 He will keep your soul.
 The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in
 From this day forth forever more.

— New American Standard Version
